This whole hospital, all you guys back there, you have good hearts, and you feel the hospital with your heart. And I tell you, you're all heroes, every single one of you. Whether you file a piece of paper in someone's file or whether you're on the front line, you're all heroes, and I can't thank you enough from the bottom of my heart. You guys are just wonderful. Oh, I can't thank you enough. I never thought I'd go home. After that conversation you and I had, doctor, I didn't think I'd make it. But if you be strong and you fight, you can come through this. And it's just a better day. I'm so grateful. I am so grateful. And I'm walking now. Look at this.

Yeah, I see that.

Pretty nice, huh? Thank you. That took a long talk.

You were put on this Earth for a reason, and I'm glad I was part of your reasoning.

Well, thank you. Thank you. I appreciate it. I'm glad you're doing better.

Thank you so much. I couldn't have done it, and I remember just seeing your eyes. I said, I'd know those eyes anywhere.

Well, thank you.

Please continue to do that FaceTiming with patients like that. It meant the world. It really did.

Yes, I'm so glad. I try to do that with all my patients.

That's wonderful.

Good.

It really is. That was better than any pain pill I ever got.

I'm so glad.

Thank you so much.

Absolutely. Pleasure meeting you again.

Thank you. You too.

And I'm glad you're doing so much better.

Thank you.

I know, it's crazy, huh?

We're just so glad to--

Thank you.

--[INAUDIBLE].

Yeah. Yeah. I should have gotten your name that day, too, because I didn't get your name. I'm like, here, this man wants to make a life changing decision.

Thank you.

You're welcome.

We appreciate it. Thanks.

Thank you. You guys are all heroes. You guys are saints.

No--

You really are.

--just doing our job.
