Dear

We hope this email finds you well. Amid the current COVID-19 crisis, we at NCJWA Vic try to find innovative ways to maintain and expand the important connections with our program participants and volunteers. You, our hard-working and dedicated Seniors Program volunteers, are high on our agenda.

This is why we are thrilled to announce today the launch of NCJWA Vic Sessions. The Sessions will take place via Zoom, facilitated by Helen Nathan, Seniors Program Coordinator. The idea is to create a place for you to share, laugh and connect. Some Sessions will include an interesting guest speaker.

The first Session will take place on Thursday 7 May 2020 at 10:30am. As requested, the first Session will be dedicated for a group catch up. Click here for the Zoom details.

With Guest Speaker
singer-songwriter Shani Weiss

via Zoom

The second Session will take place on Wednesday 13 May 2020 at 11:30am - with special guest speaker, the talented British-Israeli singer-song writer Shani Weiss.

Shani, who lives in the music capital of Australia (Melbourne, of course), plays Piano, Guitar and Ukelele. She has played with multiple bands across genres from Celtic Rock, Folk, Progressive, Grunge to Blues. She has also performed on numerous radio stations around Israel, all steppingstones in the making of her debut album 'Touch of Reality', released in May 2018.

Shani will share with us her interesting life story, play some beautiful songs (sing-a-long is more than welcome) and will answer questions. Click here for the Zoom details.

We hope to see you soon at the NCJWA Vic Sessions. Please feel free to get in touch and suggest interesting guest speakers for our future Sessions. If you need any technical assistance or have any questions please contact Sivan at the Office via email office@ncjwavic.org.au or call 9523 0535.
