Abstract: Speaker 2 answers questions about how their faith and beliefs were affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. They also answer questions about what changed their church made and what community service it engaged in.

Speaker 1 0:00

How has COVID-19 affected your faith or beliefs?

Speaker 2 0:04

I don't think it's really affected it much.

Speaker 1 0:09

Is your religious community still gathering currently? How has the COVID-19 affected your participation in your religious community?

Speaker 2 0:18

Our religious community isn't gathering, they stopped immediately. And I think they're trying to reach out to people through online communications. That's about it.

Speaker 1 0:33

Are they doing like stream services or an email sermon or anything like that? Or just staying connected on a person-to-person basis?

Speaker 2 0:41

Mostly person to person they've done one huge like worldwide broadcast in the last couple months.

Speaker 1 0:55

Would you mind stating what religion that is?

Speaker 2 0:57

The LDS.

Speaker 1 0:59

Okay. Is your religious community supplying or engaging in any kind of community service in an attempt to help alleviate issues caused by the pandemic? If so, what are they?

Speaker 2 1:10

The only thing that I'm aware of is they donated I can't even remember how many tons of food to St. Vincent. It was a lot of tons, but they have a warehouse full of water and food that they, they hand out to people in their religious community along with other people. But I know they just donated all that tonnage of food.

Speaker 1 1:37

Thank you.
