Dear Shani,

Thank you for being part of the Connect family!
NCJWA Vic Sessions seems to be the new weekly routine for many of you – wonderful!

The next Session will be combined with a virtual BrainFood event. We will be hosting the award-winning artist Anna Jacobson.

Anna is a talented poet, writer, illustrator and photographer. She will share her passion for words and give us a taste of her art. Plus - get ready to free your inner artist. Anna will also present a short poetry workshop during the event.

Wednesday, 3 June 2020 12pm-1pm
Via Zoom
REGISTER NOW

The banner features the 'brain food' logo at the top center, which includes a stylized brain icon and the text 'brain food' and 'NCJWA VIC EVENT'. Below the logo, the text reads 'BRAINFOOD WITH ANNA JACOBSON - poet, writer, illustrator & photographer'. To the right of this text is a small portrait of Anna Jacobson, a woman with glasses and a floral top. At the bottom of the banner, it says 'Wed 3 June 2020 12pm-1pm via Zoom Register Now'.

In 2018 Anna won the Thomas Shapcott Poetry Prize and the Queensland Premier’s Young Publishers and Writers Award. Her first full-length poetry collection is Amnesia Findings (University of Queensland Press, 2019). Her poetry has been published in literary journals and anthologies including Cordite, Rabbit, Meanjin, ABR’s States of Poetry Queensland and Verity La. Anna’s poetry chapbook The Last Postman (Vagabond Press 2018) is part of the deciBels series 3. In 2017 her unpublished memoir How to Knit a Human was shortlisted for the Emerging Queensland Writer –

Manuscript Award. Anna holds a Master of Philosophy, where she specialised in poetry at QUT, a Bachelor of Fine Arts (with studies in Creative and Professional Writing and Graphic Design) from QUT and a Bachelor of Photography with Honours from Griffith University. In 2019 she was a finalist in the Marie Ellis Prize for Drawing.

Check out Anna's website for more.

Warm wishes,

Lee Ann Bassor
