President: Only one person per family is allowed to go out.

Here too, I live in California. People go with their family to Walmart.

Christan Valenzuela

Me too, I haven't seen anyone go with their family, at least not where I live.

Stephanie Montero

Julia Galarza in a lot of places in the United States there are still a lot of families going out this also happens in a lot of places.

It's the people that go to Walmart, it has nothing to do with

Roberto Carlos

It's the people that go to Walmart, it has nothing to do with the epidemic, people are always like this

Jonathan Tello Julia Galarza I live in New York, and Walmart is almost empty. 7elevens are almost all closed, Hispanic food closed.

Zeraus Sirod I also live in California but I have not seen families go out...the people are more concious. How weird what you mentioned.

Julia Galarza California is big, I live in the south

Julia Galarza

California is big, I live in southern California, and I said it because I have seen it several times. I saw a couple today with their baby, they had masks but their baby didn't. A person wrote a bad review for a store because they only let one person in per family. I don't only say it to say it.

Jazmin Alayo

Is it Latino people or North American people?? Because Latino people usually come with those bad habits. I don't mean that North Americans are perfect but you know what I mean.

Julia Galarza Tanto California como NY y FL son hotspots por la cantidad de latinos que hay, es lamentable que la gente no sea consciente a estas alturas.

No es porqué son así, en realidad es ignorancia completa del mas rico hasta el mas pobre. En todos los confines de la tierra estamos así que aveces me siento que vivo en otro

California like NY and FL are hotspots for the amount of latinos that there are, its sad that the people are not considerate to that level.

Luis Salazar

I live in Los Angeles and have not see any families in the supermarkets

Hilda Tejeda – Camacho

Its not because they are just like that, in reality its complete ignorance from the richest to the poorest. All across the world we are the same way, sometimes I feel like I live in another

Its not because they are just like that, in reality its complete ignorance from the richest to the poorest. All across the world we are the same way, sometimes I feel like I live in another planet seriously.

So real today I witnessed this when I went to the supermarket to buy what I needed for the week. Because of people like this we are where we are.

Joseph Sanéz

I want to see them here at the end of the month in the streets
