Hi, my name is Fitria Hardono, and I'm an undergraduate student at ASU, enrolled in HST (history) 494. The date is February 21, 2021. The time is 9:41am. And I'm speaking with Joyce Lee. I want to ask you a question about your pandemic experience. But before I do, I would like to ask you for your consent to record this response for the COVID-19 archive. The COVID-19 archive is a digital archive at ASU that is collecting pandemic experiences. Do I have your consent to record your response and add it to the archive with your name?

Joyce Lee 0:51

Yes.

Fitria Hardono 0:52

Thank you. First, can you tell me your name, age, race and where you live.

Joyce Lee 1:02

My name is Joyce Lee. I am 68 years old. I live in Buckeye, Arizona, and I am Caucasian American.

Fitria Hardono 1:18

Thank you. And now, I'd like to ask you a quick question about the pandemic. We've experienced a lot of changes in 2020. And unfortunately, many of those have been negative and disruptive, but perhaps it's not entirely bad. What's one positive thing you've experienced during the pandemic?

Joyce Lee 1:44

I got to spend more time with my family.

Fitria Hardono 1:49

Oh, what all have you done with your family?

Joyce Lee 1:55

Well, my husband and I did puzzles together. And we went on walks around our neighborhood and just generally spent more time together.

Fitria Hardono 2:16

Oh, that's really nice. That should be it. Thank you very much for your time today.

Joyce Lee 2:21

You're welcome.
