June Newsletter #2

Message from the CEO.

Welcome to our second June issue! It has been another very productive fortnight at NCJWA Vic. Our NCJWA Vic Sessions continued last week with a briefing from the US by Nancy K Kaufman, our 2019 Fanny Reading Lecturer. This coming week, in our virtual BrainFood, Professor Daphna Hacker will give us a briefing from Israel. Details of both these talks can be found below.

Not only are we hosting events, we are also presenting at events hosted by others. Birth for Humankind invited me to a conversation on the future of mothering with their CEO Ruth Dearnley, facilitated by Berry Liberman. A link to this discussion will be on our website next week. Michelle Kornberg, Program Manager and Caring Mums Coordinator, will be interviewed on J-Air next Monday. More details appear below.

The hero article in this issue is the call for new Board members. There are a number of vacancies this year as long standing members step down from the Board. There
