COVID-19 has forced the cancellation of all sports around the country. Stores are seeing shortages of anti-bacterial products and toilet paper.

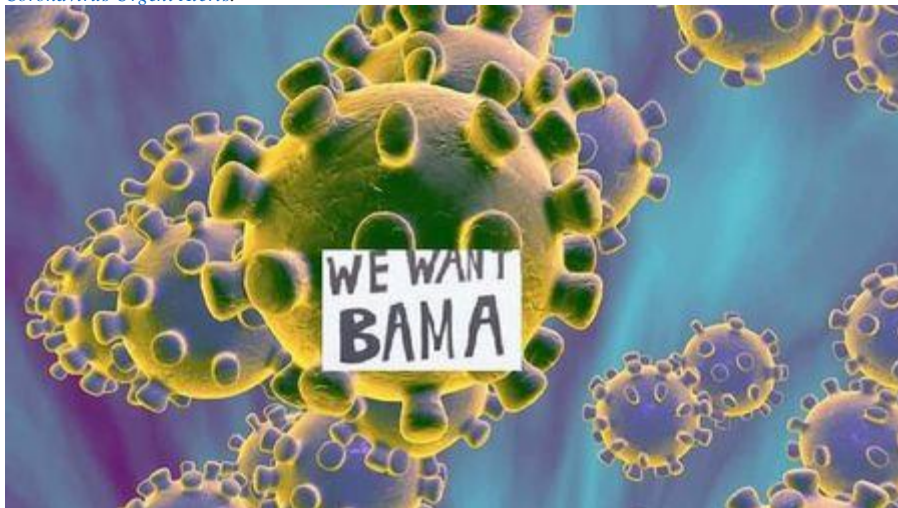

The meme game, however, remains strong amid the coronavirus as social media continues to show us it is source of news but also entertainment.

The jokes are directed at a number of topics: toilet paper shortage, no sports to watch on TV, at-home schooling, social distancing and more.

There's no question these are stressful times. Take a few minutes to step away and take a deep breath.

Just make sure wash your hands first.

The World Health Organization has announced that dogs cannot contract Covid-19. Dogs previously held in quarantine can now be released. To be clear, WHO let the dogs out.
