Virtual Krewe Social Hour Today 4/28

We're inviting you to get on Zoom and drink and chat with us virtually.

- Bring Your Own Booze.
- Bring Your Own Snack.
- Bring Your Own Electronic Device.
- Free Parking. Drinks on the house.

Zoom is a free video chat app for groups. Here's the link to join our virtual Zoom session at 6 p.m. - 8ish Tuesday. You don't have to show your video, but it's just so much more fun when we can all make faces at each other through the webcams.

As usual, our regular 4th Tuesday social hour is a relaxed social time with no agenda. Drop in when you can, hang out as long as you like. Get to know your fellow krewe members, ask questions, bounce ideas, or show off your own projects.

Zoom is a free video chat app for groups. Don't worry if Zoom is new to you; it's new to so many of us right now! The meeting will be available starting at 5:50 p.m. in case anyone wants to log in early and test your technology. You can view on any mobile phone, tablet, laptop or PC, and you can get your audio through your phone or computer's microphone. If you don't have a microphone, you can also call in for your audio. Call Captain Amanda 504-940-4976 if you have trouble.

May 1: Live Stream Fête de Jeanne d'Arc from France

Our sister city and namesake Orléans, France, has been hosting a Fête de Jeanne d'Arc for nearly 600 years, but this year's Fête and planned celebrations for the 100th anniversary of the canonization of St. Joan of Arc postponed. However, they will be live streaming a virtual celebration on Friday May 1 at 11 a.m. (CST) / 6 p.m. France time. Here's the link to the YouTube channel where you can now view a teaser and where the live streaming event will be posted.

Save the Date May 30: Virtual Feast Day Party

Usually our krewe celebrates the feast day of St. Joan of Arc with a party at the Beauregard-Keyes House and a procession to the Joan of Arc statue. This year we'll be doing that virtually. We invite everyone to tune in via Zoom (check our website for the link day of) at 6 p.m. Saturday May 30 As we usually dress in white and bring flowers and candles to her statue, we invite you to dress in white, create a little shrine of flowers and candles at your home, and post your pics on Facebook. You might put your shrine outside your home to raise St. Joan's visibility in the community if you like!

#StJoan100 Plans

The coronavirus has thrown a wrench in our plans for May celebrations, but we do have some things in the works. Stay tuned for a Joan of Arc watch party film festival on Friday nights in May, a social media campaign of Joan's historic moments in May, and the kick-off to a 100 Days of Prayer social media campaign.
