

#SMhopes: An Archive of Hopes and Dreams

COVID-19 has had us in lockdown for nearly a year. So much has been lost, and so much has been missed. But now things are beginning to look up. If you live or work in Santa Monica, CA, we want to hear your hopes and dreams for the future.

Please share your thoughts about how you view our post-pandemic world. What will you do the first day you can meet your friends? Where will you go when you can travel? What will be different? Using the Journal of The Plague Year's "Share Your Story" page, post a written text, an image, a video, or an oral history. Use our tag #SMhopes to ensure you're included in Santa Monica's Archive of Hopes and Dreams, our time capsule of this crazy time.

Santa Monica artist Paula Goldman is assisting with this project, and will print and display locally some of the uploaded submissions. This project was made possible by Art of Recovery, an initiative of Santa Monica Cultural Affairs, santamonica.gov/arts/artofrecovery. Thanks for helping us envision the future!

Email Paula with any questions at paulagoldmanphoto+smhopes@gmail.com.

