

Journal 3:

Tomorrow I have to go to the dentist. Its for minor work, but today I got a call from the office to update me on their “new protocol”. When I arrive, I have to call the front desk and let them know I’m in the parking lot. Then I will have to fill out the paperwork in my car that they bring me while they check my temperature. If my temperature reads normal, then I may come inside with a mask on and wait in the lobby. Then they will begin the appointment, having a mask to only take it off and work on my mouth seems dumb but...to each their own.
