Abstract:

Speaker 1 0:00

How was COVID-19? Sorry, how has COVID-19 affected your faith or beliefs?

Speaker 2 0:07

It honestly hasn't affected too much. I'm like, yeah, sucks. It's not the best. But it's something that's been happening. And I've just been kind of dealing with it. I don't think it's like this whole, like, major religious thing. Just kind of being put out to be it's not like the reckoning or anything. So that's what I Yeah.

Speaker 1 0:43

All right, thank you. All right. Second question is your religious community, community still gathering currently? How has COVID-19 affected your participation in your religious community?

Speaker 2 0:54

So they've been still trying to I know, it's been a little difficult, especially with, obviously, not being loose each other. They tried to have Seders and ceremonies. But I don't like through zoom and stuff. But they obviously there's a lot better and worse ways to do it. And so it's not the most effective way.

Speaker 1 1:24

All right. But you have anything else say?

Speaker 2 1:27

Um, ah, I need not just been kind of dealing with it. I feel like everyone's in the same scenario, or no matter what your religion is, what your beliefs are. Everyone's been struggling during this time. And it's just been it's kind of how you're trying to look at it. Everyone's trying new things, feeling new things. And whether right or wrong, it's like, No, we've got to deal with and it's gonna be tough to deal with as a human, before anything else.

Speaker 1 2:01

Alrighty, the final question is, is your religious community supplying or engaged anytime? or engage any kind of community service in an attempt to help alleviate issues caused by the potential pandemic Jesus? If so, what are those efforts?

Speaker 2 2:18

Um, I mean, I think they have, they've been like trying to reach out to people and do whatever they can. I don't know how successful their attempts have been. It has been awful. Oh, everyone's doing whatever they can.

Speaker 1 2:39

All right. Do you have anything else add?

Speaker 2 2:43

Oh, no, not really.
